DISPA 2012 – theme

Innovation in public service delivery – consequences for training.

1. Discuss the importance of EU's current political and financial situation for training and education of public employees.
2. Discuss how to train and educate public employees in order to be able to deliver more for less/the same.
3. The aim is to come up with 10 concrete suggestions as to what the public institutions can do in order to deliver more for less/the same.
